Drury Hotels Announces Plans to Open Drury Inn & Suites in Frisco

(ST. LOUIS) – (Feb. 16, 2016) – Drury Southwest, Inc., a division of Drury Hotels, is constructing a Drury Inn & Suites on the southeast corner of the Dallas North Tollway (DNT) and Gaylord Parkway in Frisco, Texas. The nine-story Texas hotel project will feature 184 guest rooms and suites, a rooftop pool, a fitness center, meeting spaces and an outdoor observation patio. The Drury Inn & Suites Frisco will open for business in 2017.

“This location is prime for business and leisure travelers,” said Dennis Volland, president of Drury Southwest, Inc. “Its proximity to the Dr Pepper Arena, Dr Pepper Ballpark, IKEA, the Centre at Preston Ridge and the Dallas Cowboys’ World Headquarters and Training Center makes it a perfect location in the growing Platinum Corridor of the DNT.”

“We are excited to welcome Drury Hotels to the Frisco family,” said Mayor Maher Maso, City of Frisco. “The family-owned and operated hotel chain prides itself on ‘friendly service and honest value’, which are standards our community values as well, making Frisco a perfect fit for Drury Hotels. Because of its proximity to some of our sports, entertainment, shopping and meeting venues, the Drury Inn & Suites will enhance tourism and quality of life for those who call Frisco home. We appreciate the Drury family’s determination to make Frisco a destination for expanding its business.”

The Drury Inn & Suites hotel will feature a unique, contemporary exterior design. Meeting planners for businesses and organizations will appreciate the hotel’s flexible meeting space for their next event.

“We look forward to serving visitors to Frisco and Dallas,” said Chuck Drury, president and CEO of Drury Hotels Company. “This is a highly requested location, and I am confident our Drury Inn & Suites Frisco will meet the needs of travelers looking for a great value, comfort and award-winning service.”

Guests will enjoy many amenities, including the brand’s signature free hot breakfast. Served in the hotel’s expansive seating area, Drury’s hotel breakfast features scrambled eggs, sausage, biscuits & gravy, Belgian waffles and more.

The Drury value package also includes the 5:30 Kickback®, with free hot food and cold beverages served to all guests between 5:30 and 7 p.m. Other free amenities include free long distance and local calls, free popcorn and soda in the lobby, an indoor/outdoor pool & whirlpool, exercise room, guest pantry, guest laundry facility and microwaves and refrigerators in all rooms. These inclusive amenities support the brand’s tagline, The Extras Aren’t Extra!®.
